

COMPANY BACKGROUND

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Once upon a time there was a Software Consulting company; let's call it X. There was also a Hardware Technician working independently; let's call him O. Both were working independently for years. Then came an idea! Why not form a venture which would combine the well-established Computer companies to form XOComp.

XOComp is composed of computer experts with connections to a large pool of resources to accomplish almost any Information Technology need.

XOComp strives to provide computer consulting with integrity for Corporate, Government, and Individual clients.
